AN ACT

To repeal section 537.053, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to consumption of intoxicating beverage as proximate cause of injury in tort actions.

---

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 537.053, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 537.053, to read as follows:

537.053. 1. Since the repeal of the Missouri Dram Shop Act in 1934 (Laws of 1933-34, extra session, page 77), it has been and continues to be the policy of this state to follow the common law of England, as declared in section 1.010, RSMo, to prohibit dram shop liability and to follow the common law rule that furnishing alcoholic beverages is not the proximate cause of injuries inflicted by intoxicated persons.

2. [The legislature hereby declares that this section shall be interpreted so that the holdings in cases such as Carver v. Schafer, 647 S.W.2d 570 (Mo. App. 1983); Sampson v. W. F. Enterprises, Inc., 611 S.W.2d 333 (Mo. App. 1980); and Nesbitt v. Westport Square, Ltd., 624 S.W.2d 519 (Mo. App. 1981) be abrogated in favor of prior judicial interpretation finding the consumption of alcoholic beverages, rather than the furnishing of alcoholic beverages, to be the proximate cause of injuries inflicted upon another by an intoxicated person.

3.] Notwithstanding [subsections 1 and 2] subsection 1 of this section, a cause of action may be brought by or on behalf of any person who has suffered personal injury or death against

15 [who, pursuant to section 311.310, RSMo, has been convicted, or has received a suspended 16 imposition of the sentence arising from the conviction, of the sale of intoxicating liquor to a 17 person under the age of twenty-one years or an obviously intoxicated person if the sale of such

20 have known that intoxicating liquor was served to a person under the age of twenty-one 21 years or knowingly served intoxicating liquor to a visibly intoxicated person.

22 3. For purposes of this section, a person is "visibly intoxicated" when inebriated 23 to such an extent that the impairment is shown by significantly uncoordinated physical 24 action or significant physical dysfunction. A person's blood alcohol content does not 25 constitute prima facie evidence to establish that a person is visibly intoxicated within the 26 meaning of this section, but may be admissible as relevant evidence of the person's 27 intoxication.

28 4. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to provide a right of recovery to a 29 person who suffers injury or death proximately caused by the person's voluntary 30 intoxication unless the person is under the age of twenty-one years. No person over the age

35 twenty-one years, proof that the seller or the seller's agent or employee demanded and was 36 shown a driver's license or official state or federal personal identification card, appearing 37 to be genuine and showing that the minor was at least twenty-one years of age, shall be 38 relevant in determining the relative fault of the seller or seller's agent or employee in the 39 action.

40 6. Sellers shall have the right of contribution from the alleged intoxicated person
